Their of a lot things and knowledge that of them is being i've responsible in this subject. One of them is being responsible in life. To become a future teacher a lot of failures and up and down we can their face. For me teaching in elementary is not a joke. There always a sruggles in teaching and nurturing students mental knowledge, specially in teaching in elementary grade. To be honest one my weakness is English subject because I?m not A good at speaking and nor spelling, in addition, my fear also is talking in front of many people or crowd. Because i have a introverted personality. However, we need to improve or fears because we need to surpass our limit and face gr fears. I think That i have so many things that i need to learn. I think that Improving my grammar and vocabulary Because we need to become good role model to our students In near future. My Commitment is to embrace our fears and try to proved your self That we can do it. As a educator in future we can use this knowledge by implementing it to Our prospective students And by that my commitment is fulfil.
